North Carolina Confederate Memorial Day 2011 Special Edition

Confederate Memorial Day Observance Set for Oakwood Cemetery May 7

RALEIGH—The annual observance of Confederate Memorial Day is being held at Raleigh's Oakwood Cemetery on Saturday, May 7, 2011 at 2:00 PM. Sponsoring organizations are the Capt. Samuel A. Ashe Chapter UDC and the Col. L. L. Polk Camp SCV in Garner.

Capt. Waddell Chapter Commander Frank Powell will be placing a wreath at the grave of Confederate General George Anderson. Each year, the Chapter will honor a different Confederate Officer buried in Oakwood Cemetery.

Members of the UDC will be providing refreshments in the historic House of Memory located within the grounds of Oakwood's Confederate Cemetery.

Shown above is the Confederate Cemetery Archway leading into Raleigh Confederate Cemetery in Oakwood. The Cemetery has recently been restored with help by the local SCV, MOS&B, UDC Chapters and the Zebulon Vance Society.
