Chapter moves to new meeting location in May

RALEIGH—The Captain Waddell Chapter will hold our May 18th meeting at a new location - Chow Pizza & Wings, located at 8311 Creedmoor Road, Raleigh. The BBQ Lodge, where we have been meeting for the past several years, closed permanently in February. We will try out Chow Pizza for the May meeting and will vote that night on selecting this venue as our permanent place.

Oakwood Service set for May 6th

RALEIGH—The Annual Confederate Memorial Service set for Raleigh’s Oakwood Cemetery will be held on Saturday, May 6, 2017, beginning at 2:00 PM. Our Chapter is one of the sponsors of the ceremony and we will be placing a wreath during the ceremony.

Susan Hathaway, leader of the Virginia Flaggers from Richmond, VA, will be the keynote speakers. Make your plans now to attend.

Winner of the Captain John Morton Newsletter Recognition Award for the best MOS&B newsletter in the Confederation for 1994, 1995, 1997, 1998, 1999, 2000, 2001, 2002, 2014, 2015 and 2016

Minutes of the February 16th Meeting

The meeting was called to order at 7 p.m. by Adjutant Byron Brady. There were 14 members and guest present. Chaplain David Lanier gave the invocation and Color Sgt. Rick Miller led the flag salutes.

Byron Brady entertained a motion that the previous meeting's minutes be approved as published in The Shenandoah. This motion was made, seconded, and approved unanimously. He reported $628.90 in the chapter's checking account and introduced the door prizes for the evening.

There was no Old Business.

New Business: Gary Hall made a motion that Byron Brady be elected the interim Chapter Commander for the remainder of 2017. This motion was seconded. After some discussion, the motion passed unanimously.

Darwin Roseman discussed the 2017 Confederate Memorial Day service to be held at Oakwood Cemetery on May 6, 2017, beginning at 2:00 PM. Frank Powell volunteered to contact Susan Hathaway, the speaker from Richmond, VA.

Frank Powell discussed the Confederate Heritage Day set for the NC General Assembly in Raleigh on May 10th.

It was announced that a new SCV Camp being formed in Hawaii is considering the name CSS Shenandoah.

Byron Brady introduced Lt. Commander Gary Hall who presented a program on "John Randolph of Roanoke."

$17 was raised in the chapter raffle. $13 of this went to pay for the speaker's supper.

Byron led the singing of Dixie and David Lanier gave the benediction.

Commander Brady adjourned the meeting.

Commander's Column

Thank you for your confidence in electing me the interim Commander of the Captain Waddell Chapter. I hope that you will join me as we move forward to honor the memory of our Confederate ancestors.

Please remember that we are one of the sponsoring organizations for the Annual Confederate Memorial Service to be held in Raleigh's Oakwood Cemetery on Saturday, May 6, 2017, beginning at 2:00 PM. The ceremony, spearheaded by the Colonel Leonidas Lafayette Polk SCV Camp, Garner, and one of our members Darwin Roseman. Our chapter will be placing a wreath during the ceremony. The head of the Virginia Flaggers, Susan Hathaway of Richmond, Virginia, will be delivering the keynote address.

As you already know, the MOSB national convention will be held in Wilmington July 6-8, 2017. A convention preregistration form is part of this issue so please consider attending. The convention committee has planned several days of activities which I know you will enjoy. Wilmington, the last major seaport open to the Confederacy during the War for Southern Independence, has a great deal of history for your to experience. Join me in Wilmington in July.

Hope to see all of you at our May 18th meeting at the Chow Pizza & Wings Restaurant in Raleigh. My thanks to past commander Frank Powell for securing this venue.
